

As a local restaurant, we know you are being impacted significantly at this time, and Cox Media wants to do everything we can to help. As you shift your focus to delivery, takeout, curbside, and/or drive thru services, we have developed an opportunity to help get the message out to the public that you are open, but operating in a new capacity.

Consumers are looking for ways to make their lives easier – while still staying safe and healthy. Can they order through your website? Do you deliver?

Cox Media is supporting you, our local restaurants, by offering a FREE solution to announce that you are open and offering takeout, drive thru, curbside, or delivery service. Your restaurant will be featured in a Cox Media promotion providing the community with restaurants that are ready to take their order!
