Dear Mr. Monroe:

I am writing to convey my thanks to your office and one of your employees. I failed to ask for her last name, but if my hearing served me right her first name is Melinda.

In December Melinda went above and beyond to help my husband and I with a wildlife issue at our house. My husband is immunocompromised, and we were departing for two weeks, so I was having a panic attack! My husband and I are extremely grateful for Melinda's professionalism and the kindness she showed to us. Please relay our gratitude to her and wish her a New Year filled with good health!

Warmest regards,

Lisa M. Abbinanti
