On the Agenda: FY2026 Budget Presentation

The agenda for the next Board of Supervisors meeting, Tuesday March 18, includes the presentation of the County Administrator’s Proposed FY2026 Operating Budget. Follow up listening sessions are scheduled and citizen feedback is encouraged. See the budget information, videos, and calendar on the budget webpage.

Shamrock Shenanigans at the Waterfront

You’ll pinch yourself over all the goodies that will be up for grabs at Yorktown Market Days’ St. Patrick’s Day Winter Market at Riverwalk Landing on Saturday, March 15. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., talented vendors and artisans will be selling baked goods, prepared soups, gourmet chocolates, homemade candles, dog treats, local art, and more! Enjoy performances by The Fifes and Drums of York Town, Deputy Ryan Houdashelt of the York-Poquoson Sheriff’s Office, and Thomas DeRose and Wayne Hill of Poisoned Dwarf. Kids can make Leprechaun Bait, try their luck at a Pot of Gold Coin Toss, and participate in a town wide Treasure Hunt. The free, heated Yorktown Trolley will be running from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. during this event.

Let the shamrock and roll continue with Poisoned Dwarf from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 20 for our last Cabin Fever Concert of the year! We are delighted to welcome back this eclectic and talented group for an Irish jig, Celtic music, or a tune from Wales, making you’ll feel like you’ve stepped into a traditional pub for a night of camaraderie and entertainment. Due to limited space, seats are first-come-first-serve for this event, so arrive early! The concerts are free and open to the public.

Pressure Washing, Painting, and Tree Trimming in Yorktown

Starting Monday, March 17, Riverwalk Landing will see some maintenance activity. The lower level of the parking garage will be closed for most of the day (Monday, March 17) for pressure washing. Over the next few weeks, the upper level of the parking garage and the buildings in Riverwalk Landing will also be pressure washed, followed by some repainting. A small fence near the parking garage is scheduled to be replaced.
